Your Complaint

What does your complaint primarily concern?

- Breach of a Statute or Regulation governing the practice of Land Surveying
- Breach of a Bylaw of the Saskatchewan Land Surveyors' Association
- Breach of the SLSA's Code of Ethics
- Survey Plan/Product
- Other misconduct or unprofessional behaviour
- I'm uncertain

Please note that the SLSA cannot help with all concerns. The SLSA cannot adjudicate a boundary dispute or provide an opinion on location of a boundary. If you do not agree with the location of a boundary as determined by a Member of the SLSA you should obtain the opinion of another Land Surveyor. The SLSA cannot require a Land Surveyor to amend or modify a Survey or Survey Plan. The SLSA cannot pay you any compensation, nor can they order a Land Surveyor to pay you compensation to settle your complaint. Monetary claims must be pursued through the Courts.

Details of your complaint

Be factual. Give a description of what has taken place and on what dates. If you like you may use point form.
Provide copies of all relevant documents. Additional information can be placed on page 4 if required.
Please note that a copy of this complaint will be provided to the Land Surveyor under investigation.

Explain what attempts you have made, if any, to resolve this problem.

Explain what you would like to see happen as a result of your complaint.

(Please note that the SLSA cannot ordinarily intervene in fee disputes between Land Surveyors and their clients and cannot order a Land Surveyor to issue a refund or other compensation.)

Acknowledgement and signature

I have read and I understand the following:

The Saskatchewan Land Surveyors' Association will share some or all of the information and copies of documents that it receives from me and any other person with the Land Surveyor named in the complaint.

The Saskatchewan Land Surveyors' Association may, at its discretion talk to third parties that may have information relevant to my complaint.

The Saskatchewan Land Surveyors' Association is subject to the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act of Saskatchewan Ch. F-22.01 and as a result, information gathered by the SLSA may be disclosed, on request, to other persons whose interests are affected.
